

ATI 2018: USNH Open Education: Pedagogy, Technology, & Advocacy

Start	End	Tuesday 5/29	Wednesday 5/30	Thursday 5/31
8:00	- 8:15		Continental Breakfast (8:00-8:30): Holloway Commons.	Continental Breakfast (8:00-8:30): Holloway Commons. Mills Hall check out.
8:15	- 8:30
8:30	- 8:45		Formal Welcome (8:30-8:45): Squamscott Room. Welcome, introduction, and logistics.	Individual Project Reflection (8:30-8:45): Squamscott Room. Consider project changes & current needs with staff.
8:45	- 9:00		Keynote by Alexis Clifton (8:45-9:45): Squamscott Room. Executive Director of SUNY OER Services, Alexis Clifton, will deliver a keynote presentation about the foundations of Open Education. Clifton will speak of the current state of Open, the faculty and student empowerment that comes from progressively opening the classroom, and what most Open-successful faculty have in common.	Pedagogy & Technology Skills: "Preparing to Teach with Open" (8:45-9:30): Squamscott, Piscataqua, Cocheco, Bellamy Rooms. This session will involve mini-presentations about identifying OER, as well as past-ambassador showcases of OER-focused syllabi and student-generated OER. Ambassador groups will have hands-on opportunities with these topics.
9:00	- 9:15
9:15	- 9:30
9:30	- 9:45
9:45	- 10:00		Icebreaker: "Charting our Connections" (9:45-10:15): Squamscott Room. Attendees will begin physically charting their network as it grows throughout ATI.	Pedagogy & Technology Skills: "Creating, Implementing, and Sharing" (9:45-10:25): Squamscott, Piscataqua, Cocheco, Bellamy Rooms. In project proposal themed groups, ambassadors will meet with staff facilitators and discuss OER and Open Pedagogy strategies to implement in their courses. Topics include: Finding OER, Student-Created Content, Creating/ Incorporating OER, and Open Thinking.
10:00	- 10:15
10:15	- 10:30		Collaborative Proposal Review (10:15-11:00): Squamscott Room. Ambassadors will review their current proposals with their institutional cohort. Using formal goals & milestones as guidelines, ambassadors will plan their ATI experience to guide them through the development of their proposal.	Pedagogy & Technology Skills: "Advancing Open Pedagogy" (10:30-11:15): Squamscott, Piscataqua, Cocheco, Bellamy Rooms. Ambassadors may select from various pedagogy/ technology stations that will be set up for demos and Q&A. Topics include: Digital Identity & Student Domains, Professional Learning Networks, Student-Created Syllabi, Collaborative Open Annotation, Adapting Existing Materials into OER, and Collaborative Writing/ Discussion.
10:30	- 10:45
10:45	- 11:00
11:00	- 11:15		Student Panel (11:00-12:00): Squamscott Room. The session will begin with a brief video: "USNH Open Education Student Perspectives." Student panelists will share how Open Education has positively shaped their learning, education, and financial situations. Audience questions will be welcomed.	Break: (11:15-11:30):
11:15	- 11:30
11:30	- 11:45
11:45	- 12:00
12:00	- 12:15		Lunch and Mills Hall Check-In (12:00-1:30): Holloway Commons Dining Hall / Mills Hall (if needed).	Birds of a Feather Lunch (12:00-1:00): Squamscott, Piscataqua, Cocheco, Bellamy Rooms. All will participate in lively lunchtime discussions based on attendee-suggested themes.
12:15	- 12:30
12:30	- 12:45
12:45	- 13:00
13:00	- 13:15
13:15	- 13:30
13:30	- 13:45
13:45	- 14:00
14:00	- 14:15
14:15	- 14:30
			Backwards Design with Open Pedagogy: Alexis Clifton (1:30-2:30): Squamscott Room. Participants will identify one course objective from a course of their choosing, and apply backwards design principles to identify appropriate assessments, activities, and open resources for that objective. Opportunities for Open Pedagogy projects will be evaluated. Participants will leave with a personalized rubric for evaluating OER course materials, a module map with all OER and assessment content identified, and a workflow for transitioning additional course modules to OER as desired.	Advocacy Keynote (1:00-2:00): Squamscott Room. USNH-KSC Open Education Faculty Fellow and Professor and Chair of Biology at KSC, Karen Cangialosi, will discuss her personal Open Education advocacy journey, as well as the current state of Open Education advocacy across USNH.
				Institution Advocacy Meetings (2:00-3:00): Squamscott Room. Ambassadors will reflect on their role as an institutional advocate for Open Education in the next academic year. They will work with their institutional cohorts to come up with an Advocacy Action Plan.

14:30	-	14:45		Breakout Sessions: Working in the Open (2:30-4:00): Squamscott Room. UNH, PSU, and KSC librarians will offer breakout sessions on the topics of Copyright & Open Access, Copyright & Creative Commons, and Platforms & Practices for Student OER-Creation. Attendees will choose one session to attend, and then gather as a group to discuss.
14:45	-	15:00
15:00	-	15:15
15:15	-	15:30
15:30	-	15:45
15:45	-	16:00
16:00	-	16:15		Break (4:00-5:00): Personal time.
16:15	-	16:30
16:30	-	16:45	Check in available (3:00-7:00): Parking in the Campus Crossing Visitor's Lot adjacent to Mills Hall and across from the shopping center. Registration in Mills Hall, parking tags distributed. Check in for Tuesday night ends at 7:00 PM.
16:45	-	17:00
17:00	-	17:15			Dinner (5:00-6:15): Paul College of Business and Economics Court Yard. Cash bar will be available beginning at 4:45pm.
17:15	-	17:30
17:30	-	17:45
17:45	-	18:00
18:00	-	18:15
18:15	-	18:30			Speed-Date Networking (6:15-7:30): Paul College Court Yard. This fast-paced session will provide attendees with opportunities to network in a speed-dating format, while sharing their Open Education project ideas and experiences with technology in the classroom, and engaging in dialogue about OE advocacy. Dessert & cash bar will be available.
18:30	-	18:45
18:45	-	19:00
19:00	-	19:15
19:15	-	19:30
19:30	-	19:45
19:45	-	20:00
20:00	-	20:15				