

January 2018 Event: Open Education: Be the Change Schedule

Time	Activity	Description
9:00-9:30	Check-in	Check-in will begin at 9:00. Light refreshments and a selection of hot/ cold drinks will be available.
9:30-9:45	Welcome	Welcome, introduction, and logistics
9:45-10:45	Keynote and Q&A: Bryan Alexander	Keynote speaker, Bryan Alexander, will contextualize open in relation to the recent trends, changing landscape, and future trajectory of higher education.
10:45-11:00	Break	Attendees can grab some coffee, add to the padlet, and connect with colleagues.
11:00-11:45	From the Student's View	The session will begin with a brief video of student stories about open education. Student panelists will share how open education has positively shaped their learning, education, and financial situations. Audience questions will be welcomed.
11:45-12:30	Lunch	Attendees will enjoy a hot buffet. Options include: vegetarian hearty minestrone soup, tossed seasonal greens, gluten free tuscan chicken, and cheese tortellini.
12:30-1:15	Technology Slam	This high-energy session will involve five mini presentations about a selection of the tools, technologies, and strategies of open education. Presenters will break off to different parts of the room, where attendees will be able to connect for Q&A.
1:15-1:30	Break	Assorted desserts will be available.
1:30-2:30	Networking (Speed-Dating)	This will be a fast-paced opportunity for attendees to network in a speed-dating format, while sharing their experience with technology, open education, their courses, and advocacy.
2:30-3:30	Advocacy & Action Workshop	Bryan will lead attendees through the creation of an action plan. This will be an opportunity to explicitly plan the next steps in the upcoming year, as it pertains to open education.
3:30-4:00	Reflections	Attendees will look back on tweets from the day, the padlet, their action plan, and think about their takeaways. They will complete an evaluation for the event.